Saba Hamid

This is to inform you that Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC)/ Service Canada (SC) has completed the processing of your Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA) application received on January 20, 2024 for 1 Assistant HR Manager at Saska Realty 2105 Victoria Ave E Regina Saskatchewan, Canada.

It has been determined that hiring foreign nationals in the specified occupation and at the specified work location is likely to have a positive or neutral impact on the Canadian labour market. This positive LMIA expires on February 20, 2029; prior to this date, the foreign national(s) must submit their work permit or permanent residency application(s) to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). If you have not already provided the name(s) of the foreign national(s), please submit their name(s) by completing the Temporary Foreign Worker Information form located at: <https://catalogue.servicecanada.gc.ca/content/EFForms/en/Detail.html?Form=ESDC-EMP5661>.

Is issued). This positive LMIA is also based on the information and supporting documentation you provided in your application and it is subject to your compliance with legal requirements related to the employment of the foreign worker. Employers are responsible for:

- Ensuring they comply with all of the conditions and requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA), the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR), and the Temporary Foreign Worker (TFW) Program, as outlined in documents such as the LMIA application, the LMIA decision letter and annexes;
- Keeping all records associated to their LMIA application and any other documents that demonstrate their compliance with the program conditions that are set out in the LMIA decision letter and annexes for a period of six years; and
- Informing ESDC/SC of any changes or errors relating to and approved LMIA or the temporary foreign worker.

To view the Program Requirements, you agreed to comply with as part of your application submission, please visit: <https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/foreign-workers.html>

This LMIA may be revoked or suspended if:

- a) New information becomes known after the time the LMIA is issued that, if known before, would have led to different result or indicate that the employment of the foreign worker under the work permit is having, or will have, a significant negative effect on the labour market in Canada;
- b) You, your third-party, or the group of employers of which you are part of provided false, misleading or inaccurate information in the context of the request for the LMIA;

In addition, any documents that relate to your compliance with the above-mentioned conditions must be retained for a period of six years from the first day of the period of employment for which the work permit is issued, ESDC may require production of these documents to verify compliance with these conditions. You should contact the appropriate Service Canada Centre, and each affected foreign worker, if you decide to cancel your offer of employment prior to the entry of the foreign worker to Canada, or if you no longer require hiring a foreign worker. Permit. It does not authorize the foreign worker(s) to enter remain or work in Canada. That decision is the responsibility of CIC.

Also note that, in addition to providing CIC with a copy of this opinion, CIC expects the foreign national submit a copy of the employment contract signed by the employer and the foreign national prior to issuing the work permit. The wages and working conditions outlined in the employment contract must be consistent with the information regarding the offer of employment set out in the Annex

Please keep a copy of these documents for your records and forward a copy to the prospective foreign worker(s). As well kindly advise this Service Canada Center and each foreign national if you no longer require his/her service as a worker or if you need to can cell your job offer prior to the entry of the worker to Canada.

HOW TO APPLY FOR A WORK PERMIT - INFORMATION FOR FOREIGN NATIONALS
